SILVER CROSS MOTHER Hazel Hannah lays a wreath at Elk Point's cenotaph, guarded by a quartet of stalwart Canadian Forces Base Wainwright personnel.

Wreaths, prayers remember wars past and present

A trio of scarlet-coated RCMP led a parade of military personnel, Legion, lodge, service club and youth group members to Elk Point's flame-topped cenotaph on Sunday, November 11.

Following the singing of O Canada, prayers by Pastor Jerry Richards and Rev. Jope Langejans, and placing of the colors by Sergeant-at-Arms Wes Scott, wreaths were laid by representatives of federal, provincial and local governments, the school division, First Nations, Metis Settlement, CFB Wainwright and numerous businesses, organizations and individuals. President Marie Dejarlais laid a wreath on behalf of Royal Canadian Legion #151, Genevieve Russell on behalf of the Korean Veterans and Hazel Hannah on behalf of mothers whose children served in the armed forces.

The assembly then moved into the Elk Point Seniors Recreation Centre, where the Last Post signalled the beginning of two minutes of silence. Master of Ceremonies Sid Holthe recited the Act of Remembrance, with everyone joining in the solemn pledge, "We will remember them." A bagpipe lament and Reveille were followed by the reading of "In Flanders Fields" by local student Sarah Zarowny.

Captain Spence of CFB Wainwright was the first of numerous dignitaries to offer a Remembrance Day address, and asked that we "learn from the mistakes of history so we will not be doomed to repeat them." Cst. Peter Beardy, RCMP, read a letter from Prime Minister Jean Chretien, reminding Canadians "we must continue to stand on guard" for our country. Lorne Dustow of Fishing Lake Metis Settlement said "September 11 has brought the horrors of war home to us... if we respect life, we won't be so quick to take it."

New Council approves outdoor skating rink

A full agenda faced Elk Point's brand new Town Council as they got down to work at their first regular meeting.

Campaign promises to do something for the community's youth were fulfilled, as Council agreed to plans to build an outdoor skating rink in the soccer field north of the A. G. Ross Arena. "We're looking at 160 by 80 feet," Mayor Lyle Frisby told Council. Councillor Parrish Tung added that they are planning for some temporary benches at the site, which could possibly be replaced by permanent benches also useful for the soccer season.

RCMP Sgt. Lyle Marianchuk visited Council to report on crime statistics for the third quarter of 2001, and credited the COPS Program with sizeable decreases in thefts and break-and-enters compared to the same quarter last year. A 33% increase in criminal code incidents resulted from one incident where 16 vehicles were vandalized by children under 12 years of age while the owners attended a funeral. Total municipal bylaw infractions were up by 38%, mostly regarding noise complaints.

Drug complaints were up, but involved anonymous calls. "We need recent, credible information. There is nothing we can do with anonymous calls," Marianchuk noted.

Collisions were down by 38%, while both provincial and Criminal Code traffic offenses were increased, possibly due to Operation Impact and a recent seatbelt blitz.

Owners of a local commercial building damaged by burst water pipes after the 1999 street upgrading project also visited Council, to ask how the situation can be rectified. This matter was reviewed in camera at the conclusion of the meeting.

Improvements at Elk Point Public Library, including replacement of an aging photocopier and replacement of worn floor covering, were tabled until budget time.

Council accepted the 2002 FCSS funding agreement, which has not changed since last year. It was noted that FCSS does a good job of operating within their budget.

#1 board, said that in the wake of September 11, "we are worried for our children... and know, in a small way, how the parents felt to send off their children to war." Division 2 County Councillor Sharil Baumgardner acknowledged the contribution of not only the veterans and those serving overseas today, but also "the families who stayed home, worried and worked, and could only support each other."

MLA Ray Danyluk noted it was "two months to the day since our freedom was attacked. We no longer take freedom for granted... we are all vulnerable." This is "a very different war - not a war against a country, a war of fear and vulnerability. We want our peace and security back... we must join together as a community, and must not lose our freedom to live in a democracy. We must move on and continue to flourish as a community, a province and a country."

Margaret Modin thanked Captain Spence for "keeping the events of the past in the eyes of our kids," before going on to read a Remembrance Day message from MP Leon Benoit. Benoit had "stood in the House of Commons and wished Godspeed to the forces personnel leaving to fight terrorism. It hit home that it is no small thing to live loved ones behind and go to war." Legion president Marie Desjarlais thanked all for attending the ceremonies, and gave special thanks to the morning's organizers, especially Jean Russell, Sid Holthe and Legion chaplain Joep Langejans.

A worship service led jointly by Pastor Jerry Richards of Calvary Family Fellowship and Rev. Joep Langejans of Elk Point United Church, with Gabe Bayduza as pianist and music by the Calvary Family Fellowship concluded the observances.

The Town is a member of Heart of the Lakeland destination marketing organization, and the question was asked "do we want to duplicate promotion?" when Council was presented with information on the St. Paul Journal's "Discover Northeast" tourist information book. Council felt it was "money well spent to promote our town," and agreed to submit an advertisement.

Elk Point will send a letter of support to the Northern Alberta Development Council regarding their Northern Alberta Highway Strategy, which would see Alberta's far northern communities linked by roads built with a one-time grant from the Province.

Elk Point's Town office will be closed December 24, giving staff a five-day holiday weekend for the festive season. They will, however, be open regular hours on New Year's Eve, December 31 to accommodate those wishing to pay taxes prior to the assessment of penalties.

The option of a daily fee for corporate use, rather than an annual sum, was removed by the Airport Commission as they worked on their 2002 budget. The airport's deficit for the current year is only slightly over half last year's figure, and will, as usual, be split between the Town and County.

Senior Elks home opener ends in an overtime tie

An excellent crowd was on hand as the Elk Point Elks took on their traditional rivals, the Dewberry Mustangs, in their first home game of the season Friday night.

With a number of new players added to a solid core of veterans, the Elks were raring to go, and seemed well matched with the Mustangs, who also have a few new players on their roster. Both teams remained scoreless for the first half period, the Elks finally lighting up the scoreboard with 9:18 left to go, Aaron Aarbo scoring off Trevor Quinney. Dewberry replied less than a minute later, Simon Giesbrecht scoring off Garrett Wyness and Derek Cusack, and took the lead with just under six minutes left in the period, Blair Johnson scoring unassisted.

The Elks put forward a solid defense in the second period, and scored the only goal in that 20 minutes, new recruit and Midget Thunder veteran Brian Poitras scoring off a nice across-the-ice pass by Lawren Wowk and newcomer Jason Bessette.

Leighton Grey gave the Elks the lead just before the middle of the third period, off assists by Poitras and Wowk, but the Mustangs weren't long in tying things up again, Wyness assisted by Giesbrecht and captain Bob Oneschuk. The visitors edged out in front with 5:03 left on the clock, Giesbrecht assisted by Cusack and Craig Blake. Wowk, assisted by Aarbo and Cory LaBoucane, evened things up for the Elks with 1:33 to go in the only power play goal of the game, with onetime Elk Point Minor Hockey player Nathan Mathews ensconced in Dewberry's sin bin.

Vigilant goalies kept scorers at bay through the five minutes of overtime for a 4-all final score.

Only six penalties, three for each team, were recorded in the very physical game.

Saturday's game against Kitscoty was postponed due to ice scheduling difficulties. The next Elks home game is slated for this coming Saturday at 8 p.m. against Paradise Valley.

Good weekend for minor hockey

By Doug Bassett
Review Sports

No question, it was a good weekend for all our teams. Let's start with the Novice Hurricanes who were in Vermilion on Saturday with Dylon Loughran between the pipes, coming home with a big 7 to 1 win. Tanner Shankowski with two, "Dirty Harry" Harrison Maas with two, Brendan Bishop, Myles Yarmuch and Eric Kubinchak all with singles.

Two weeks ago it was a tough game for the Atom Avalanche who finished in a 7-all tie against Lac La Biche. Sonny Benson with two, including the tying goal in the last minute, Danny Carlson doing a super job on the "D" and Jerin Bezpalko with some awesome saves.

This past week the Avalanche just buried Kikino on Saturday at noon with an easy 10 to 0 win. Two goals each by Ian Jurak, Kameron Ballas, Sonny Benson and defenceman Jordan "Krank" Krankowski, Ryan Marceniuk and "Bronco Billy" Hudy with singles.

The power play was really clicking for the Elk Point Dewberry Bantams who took on St. Paul on Saturday night, winning 5 to 3, Kelly Calliou with a hat trick, Robert Goldsmith with a single and going "coast to coast" scoring shorthanded, defenceman Greg Kozicky.

Then on Sunday the Bantams traveled to Vermilion to play against their old buddies, the Ockerman brothers, skating to a two-all tie. Jason Kalynchuk with a real n ice one going top shelf, then assisting on a tip in by Wayne Rainey.

The Midget Girls Storm are off to a great start, and have been undefeated in their first four outings, beating St. Paul 6 to 4 last weekend, and hammering Macklin 11 to 0 on Saturday night, Brookelyn Blacklock with four, Eryl Anton Roberts, Sheena Flamand and Kali Cousins with two each, Kristyn Ballas with a single.

The Elk Point Dewberry Peeewe Avalanche had a very good showing this past weekend, playing in a Tier 1 tournament in Cold Lake. Losing a real close one to Cold Lake in the first game 2 to 1, then defeating Lac La Biche 6 to 3 in their second game and losing to Provost in their third game of the day, they finished second in their pool and played Wainwright on Sunday, losing in the B final. A strong weekend for goalie Chris Proski who faced a ton of shots, and a hat trick for Ryan "Little M" MacDonald.

■ Proclamation

White Ribbon Week

November 25 - December 6

Whereas the majority of women and men in our community are deeply concerned about the pressing problem of violence against women;

And whereas the White Ribbon Campaign believes that most men want to make a positive contribution to ending this violence;

And whereas our municipality wants to take tangible steps to raise awareness, along with other municipalities across the country;

Be it resolved:

1. That November 25 - December 6, 2001 be proclaimed

WHITE RIBBON WEEK

in the Town of Elk Point.

2. That all members of Council and all municipal employees, particularly men, are encouraged to wear the 'white ribbon' during White Ribbon Week.

3. That the White Ribbon Poster be displayed at the Municipal Office in such a location that it can be seen, and be signed, by councillors and visitors alike.

4. That white ribbons will be available to all visitors to the Town of Elk Point Town Office during White Ribbon Week.

Giving - for the sake of a child

By Denise Bjorkman

F. G. Miller High School

Many countries throughout the world are plagued with war, civil unrest, or natural disasters. We are the lucky ones, being born into one of the best countries in the world. Crusaders International, the F. G. Miller Students' Union and the Crusader student body, are making a difference in the lives of children around the world by participating in Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child Program. The program is based around filling shoeboxes with toys, hygiene products and school supplies. The video we all watched at the beginning of the program was a testimony to the joy each box brings to the child who receives it. As organizer, I am proud of the respect the students show during these presentations and of the effort the Crusaders put into the program each year. Our students are definitely aware of the global community and their thoughtfulness certainly does replace tears of sorrow with tears of joy. We created 100 boxes this year (which included 15 community boxes). One hundred children will smile when they open our Operation Christmas Child boxes. We also completed one Teacher Box.

There are many to thank, first and foremost, those Crusaders and community members who took time out of their busy lives to think of others. They are: Tara Campbell (2), Lisa Kozicky, Sara Kozicky, Jan Kozicky, Brett and Travis Lindquist, Kelsey and Kirsty Lindquist, John Braga, Lisa and James Braga (2), Faye Smith (2), Elaine Ziomek, Lily Pentek, Denise Bjorkman, Colin Bjorkman, Bronwyn Bilak, Carissa Maksymec, Leanne Wilson, Donna Rudolf, Cassy Cochrane, Sage Lowry, Adam Carlson, Michelle Marcoux, Danielle Abraham, Brad Kalynchuk, Pam Frisby, Curtis Proski, Jessica Lee, Yolanda Kinjerski, Travis Anderson, Kristin Lindsay, Marcy Ference (with Stephanie Ference, Darby Brooker, Amanda Roach and Katrina Robinson), April Bresky, Laci Jacobson, Nichole Havener (7), Elaine Bjorkman (2), Verona Lea Flanders (2), Irene Melin, Agnes Moroziuk (2), Scott Lindquist, Grayson Bilak, Maureen and Alison Ference, Melissa Dorey, Michelle Zapesocki, Crusaders International, Kali Cousins, Jordan Cousins, Dara-Lann Greening, Jelayne Pankiw, Alyssa Richards, Moriah Brunner, Brandie Smereka (2), Brittany Ballas, Stephen Kozina, Amanda Marianchuk, Chelsea Schnurer, Kalina Sheppard Vinslovas, Servus Credit Union, Tasha Yopyk, Kurt Kozicky, Kristyn Ballas, Alyssa Fry, Melissa Breen, Vanessa Deschamps, Catherine Campbell, Sharayah and Adrian Kiss, Alyssa Beady, Kristy Myshaniuk, Jeff Huseby, Danielle Wruth, Rhonda Wruth, Christina Moores, Richy McKay, Bradley Swedgan, Brandon Holthe, Taryn Shankowski and April Paley, Tate Jensen, Valerie Friesen, Shaidel Heagy, Nikki Gadwa, Maureen Myshaniuk, Diane Balash, Sherry Pelech, Vicki Brooker, Val and Willie Poitras (2) and Raelynn Huseby. Advanced apologies if I missed anyone... you are just as special as the ones above.

The following people donated to the teacher box and/or items to add to existing boxes this year: Iryne Buck, Darlene and Jesse Kozicky, Elaine Bjorkman, Adrian Kiss, Lesia Sherwin, Verona Lea Flanders, Wanda Cochrane, Tina Harms, Carissa Maksymec, Alex Yarmuch, Denise Bjorkman, Brenda Bintz, Raquel Germain.

The program would not have been a success if it were not for the following people: Mrs. Margaret Modin for organizing our area and for delivery of the shoeboxes to us from Edmonton, Mrs. Brooker for press coverage, Crusaders International for folding, sorting and packing the shoeboxes for delivery, and to the Students' Union who donated the $5 shipping fee for all the Crusader-made boxes. Our hats off to all of you.

The Crusaders also think about children closer to home. Toys for Tots is another project supported by Crusaders International. Gently used stuffed toys are donated to an organization in Beaumont who wash and

■ From the FCSS desk

Prevention of family violence

By Deanna Easthope

FCSS Director

How is family violence prevented? This is a very good question. And... it is a good question that needs some answers during the month of November, which is Family Violence Prevention Month. In last week's column, I wrote about what to do if you find yourself in an abusive situation. This week, I would like to talk about the needs of the abusive person (male or female) and some ideas of how this can be turned around and prevented.

At any stage, the abusive person might need the following: (1) This person needs to learn that abuse is not acceptable. (2) That physical power is not needed to be a worthwhile person. (3) That each person is responsible for his or her own actions. (4) that it is OK to ask for help and to know the community resources. (5) To have an opportunity to heal and recover from his or her own experiences of abuse and family problems that contribute to his or her abusive behaviors. (6) To examine control issues (impulsiveness, controlling or manipulative behavior) and (7) To learn to recognize the feelings of self and others.

Then during times of extreme abuse or violence he or she needs: (1) External restraint to stop the violence. (2) Understanding that any form of abuse is not acceptable. (3) Understanding that hitting a family member is assault - it is a crime. (4) Understanding that nobody "makes" him or her violent - he or she is responsible for his or her own actions.

After an incident of abuse or violence he or she will need: (1) To overcome denial and minimizing the abuse. (2) To accept responsibility for his or her actions. (3) External restraint from repeat violence or abuse. (4) Help to deal with the sources of his or her abusive behavior, and (5) To learn no ways of behaving.

Some of his or her needs may be met through (1) Developing self-esteem; (2) Understanding how society's attitudes influence his or her behavior; (3) Public awareness; public discussions about violence being acceptable - even at home. (Yes, teenagers, even the slapping of bare skin game played on each other is really not acceptable at home or at school); (4) Spouse, neighbors, parents, friends holding the abuser accountable for his or her actions; not "covering" or making excuses for him or her; and (5) Self-confidence or communication courses, learning other ways to express anger, learning to have empathy. Of course if none of the above is helping the abuser than the police will have to intervene to stop the violence. The abusive person will have to be physically separated from family members and charged with assault.

In summary, treatment is needed to help heal and resolve the sources of his or her violence (for example, his or her own experiences with abuse, values and beliefs, impulsive behavior). This person needs training in effective communication, anger control or anger management. This all sounds simple, but I know it is not. The first step would be to recognize the problem in themselves and then the second step would be to seek help. Formal counselling is available in our area. Visitors from St. Paul, Lac La Biche, Vegreville and Lloydminster OORP lodges and Elks from Elk Point, Lac La Biche and High Prairie were on hand for the November 12 visit of Supreme Honored Royal Lady Beverley Dukart to the Elk Point Order of Royal Purple. These two projects are great ways to feel the spirit of the Christmas season. Crusaders International would also like to remind students and the community than a project very much like Operation Christmas Child exists in our own community. Santas Anonymous benefits those families who live in Elk Point and the surrounding area. The children that Santas Anonymous supports are also in need of smiles this Christmas, so if you did not participate in OCC, consider donating new unwrapped toys to this very deserving program run by the Elk Point Community Lions Club (formerly the Lioness). There is a drop-off box at F. G. Miller High School and other boxes can be found around town. Donations are greatly appreciated. Crusaders International hopes to see your donations as we help this Club wrap up smiles for Santas Anonymous this holiday season.
